

Associated Barber College of San Diego Code of Conduct for Lender Relationships

I. Covered Individuals

Any officer, agent, or employee of Associated Barbers College of San Diego (“ABCSD”, “College”), who works in the financial aid office or has responsibilities with respect to education loans, whether those loans are through the federal student loan programs or are private loans, is a covered individual for purposes of this Code of Conduct.

II. Gifts and Gratuities

A. No covered individual may accept any gift, gratuity, favor, entertainment, hospitality, loan, discount, or other thing having more than a de minimus value from any lender, guarantor, or servicer of education loans, unless such gift or thing of value comes within the following exceptions:

- 1) Materials or training programs related to loans, default aversion, default prevention, or financial literacy
- 2) Food, refreshments, training, or informational material provided as part of a training session that is designed to improve the service of a lender, guarantor or servicer, as long as the training contributes to the professional development of the ABCSD representative.

B. A student who is also an employee of ABCSD may accept favorable terms, conditions and borrower benefits that are comparable to those provided to all students at ABCSD.

C. A gift to a family member or other person with a relationship to a covered individual is considered to be a gift to the covered individual if it is given with the knowledge of the covered individual and the covered individual has reason to believe the gift was given because of his or her position with ABCSD.

III. Services and Contributions

A. ABCSD may permit a lender, servicer, or guarantor to provide entrance and exit counseling services to borrowers as long as ABCSD staff are in control of the counseling and it does not promote the products or services of any particular lender, servicer, or guarantor.

B. ABCSD may accept philanthropic contributions that are unrelated to educational loans and not made in exchange for any advantage or consideration related to education loans.

IV. Contracting and Board Arrangements

A. A covered individual may not accept any fee, payment, or other financial benefit from a lender or any affiliate of a lender as compensation for any type of consulting relationship or other contract to provide services to a lender or on behalf of a lender that relates to educational loans. With the permission of the President of ABCSD, a covered individual may serve on an advisory board or group established by a lender, guarantor, or group of lenders or guarantors, and may accept reimbursement for reasonable expenses incurred in such service.

B. With the advance permission of the President of ABCSD, an officer or employee of ABCSD who is not employed in the financial aid office and does not otherwise have responsibilities for education loans may serve as a paid or unpaid member of the board of directors of a lender, servicer, or guarantor of education loans.

C. With the advance permission of the President of ABCSD, an officer, agent, or employee of ABCSD who is not employed in the financial aid office but does otherwise have responsibilities for education loans may serve as a paid or unpaid member of the board of directors of a lender, servicer, or guarantor of education loans, so long as that person recuses himself or herself from participating in any decisions of the board relating to education loans at the institution.

D. An officer, employee, or agent of a lender, guarantor, or servicer may serve on the ABCSD board so long as that board member recuses himself or herself from any decisions of the board relating to education loans.

V. Interaction with Borrowers

A. The loan of a first-time borrower may not be assigned to a particular lender through award packaging or other methods.

B. A borrower may choose any lender, and ABCSD will not refuse to certify a loan or delay in certifying a loan based on the borrower's selection of a lender.

VI. Offers of Funds for Private Loans

No officer, employee, or agent of ABCSD shall on the College's behalf request or accept from any lender any offer of funds to be used for private education loans in exchange for the College providing concessions or promises to the lender relating to numbers of loans, loan volume, or preferred lender arrangements.

VII. Staffing Assistance and Materials

A. ABCSD shall not solicit or accept assistance with staffing a call center or the financial aid office from any lender, except as provided below.

B. In an emergency, such as a federally or state-declared disaster or other emergency identified by the Department of Education, ABCSD may accept short-term assistance in providing financial aid related functions from a lender.

C. ABCSD may accept assistance from a lender related to professional development training for financial aid administrators.

D. ABCSD may accept educational counseling materials, financial literacy materials, or debt management materials from a lender so long as those materials disclose the identification of any lender that assisted in preparing or providing those materials.
